

REPUBLICANS WIN VICTORY IN MAINE

Elect Governor, Auditor,
Two U. S. Senators and Four Representatives

MILLIKEN LEADS TICKET

Drift Extends to County Offices, the Greater Number Electing Republican Attorneys

FIGHT HOTTEST IN YEARS

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 11.—Maine Republicans, reinforced by returning Progressives won a signal victory at the election today. They elected a governor, an auditor, two United States Senators and four representatives in congress and wresting control of the state house of representatives from the Democrats will be able on a joint vote of the legislature to elect the other state officers not chosen by popular vote.

Carl E. Milliken led his ticket, defeating Governor Oakley C. Curtis, who sought re-election, by a plurality of approximately 13,000. The Republican drift extended to county officers, the greater number of counties choosing Republican county attorneys and sheriffs. These offices are important locally because the holders are charged with enforcing the prohibition law.

The vote was heavy as had been expected for the campaign had been waged with a determination not seen in recent years. The country was searched out for speakers of national prominence and the greater number of these battled on national issues. The fight was particularly hot for the two United States senatorships and the four places held by Maine in the lower house at Washington.

National defense, the tariff and the eight hour law for railroad men loomed large in the speeches.

The Progressives who two years ago cast 18,226 votes returned largely to the Republican party in the opinion of Republican leaders. The closest fight was for congress from the second district, where Representative Daniel J. McGillicuddy was defeated by Wallace H. White, Jr., 1,000 plurality.

United States Senator Charles F. Johnson, whose wide personal popularity had given the Democrats great hopes of his return, was defeated by Frederick Hale, son of the ex-senator, by approximately 9,500 votes. For the short term in the senate, former Governor Bert M. Fernald defeated Kenneth C. M. Sills, dean of Baldwin college.

M. Goodall won from A. L. Stevens in the first congressional district by 3,000. Congressman John A. Peters retained his seat, defeating John E. Bunker in the third district by four thousand. Ira G. Hersey defeated Leonard A. Pierce in the fourth district by 5,000.

At midnight returns for the state legislature were incomplete. The figures then stood:

Senate
Republicans	12
Democrats	9
Missing	19

House
Republicans	61
Democrats	27
Missing	64

The town of Gray elected a Republican to the state house of representatives for the first time in twenty years.

With forty eight precincts out of a total of 635 missing, representing forty towns and a few precincts in this city the vote for governor late tonight stood:

Milliken, Republican	77,045.
Curtis, Democrat	64,897.

This was a lead for the Republican candidate of 12,148.

The result in the sixteen counties for local officers was: Fourteen Republican county attorneys, one Democrat, one missing; sheriffs, thirteen Republicans, one Democrat, one in doubt, one missing.

New York, Sept. 11.—Leaders at Republican National Headquarters here tonight expressed elation over the result of today's election in Maine while those at Democratic headquarters declined to concede any triumph to the Republicans in carrying the state. Secretary Reynolds of the Republican national committee issued a statement in which he said:

"The result in Maine, especially in the Republican vote for governor, shows an absolutely reunited party. Carl E. Milliken has received all the votes cast for the Progressive candidate two years ago together with the 'stay-at-home' vote of two years ago."

Chairman McCormick of the Democratic committee issued the following statement:

CREOSOTE PAVEMENT ORDERED ON THREE STREETS NEAR SQUARE

Property Owners Heard at Meeting of Improvement Board Monday—Tarvia Pavement Proposed for Mound Avenue.

The board of local improvements held a hearing Monday morning with reference to the proposed pavement for North Sandy Street, West Court and South West Street. After hearing from various property owners the board adopted the resolution providing for creosote block pavement on these streets. There were a number of property owners present to discuss materials and no positive objections were filed to the pavement as a whole except by Edward White on behalf of Mrs. Engel, who owns a store room on North Sandy street.

Henry Frisch, representing Myers Bros., objected to the proposed width of the pavement, preferring 26 to 27 feet, as he thought that to widen the pavement to that extent would make the sidewalks too narrow along a three story building. He was in favor of the improvement as a whole. Charles Moore, representing the W. J. Moore estate, said he preferred posten brick and said he understood that John Cherry was of the same opinion.

A. W. Becker, owning property on West Court street, said that he believed the street could be retopped with posten brick in a satisfactory way and at very much less cost than for creosote block. He said that he would like to visit some cities where creosote block is in use before having the pavement laid adjoining his property.

Joseph DeGoveia, representing his own property and that owned by the Reichs Brewing Company, was enthusiastically in favor of the creosote blocks. He said that anyone who drove along the street could see the need of the pavement and from his observation in other cities that creosote blocks would provide an excellent improvement. Fred A. Degen expressed some preference for a brick pavement and Dr. Duncan said he was opposed to creosote blocks because he thought that they would absorb moisture and offensive matter and later would be a menace to public health.

The board adopted the suggestion changing the width of the proposed pavement from 27 to 26 feet, which made the same change in the specifications for the other streets adjoining the square where paving is proposed. It was previously stated that the pavements on streets approaching the square would be made 27 feet wide with a 6 1/2 foot sidewalk on each side. Now the plans call for a 26 foot pavement with a 7 foot sidewalk on each side of the street.

Following this action the board passed a resolution providing for the pavement of Mound avenue from Park street to the city limits with tarvia and set the hearing for Monday, Sept. 25, at 9 a. m. This pavement will connect up with the tarvia roadway which is being laid west of the city limits to the Norbury sanatorium.

STARTS TRANS-CONTINENTAL RACE

Plymouth, Mass., Sept. 11.—An automobile trans-continental relay race against time started from Plymouth today. The finish is to be at Port Lawton, Seattle, Wash., and plans materialize the last relay should reach its destination on Saturday. The time allowance for the race of 3,685 miles is 120 hours. The war department has aided in mapping out the itinerary and has furnished the message which the couriers are to deliver. To maintain the schedule each courier must maintain an average of 31 miles an hour.

"The result of the election in Maine indicates a sweeping Democratic victory in November. I have never claimed that we would win in Maine, because I realized that to carry such a rock-ribbed Republican stronghold in a presidential year would be practically impossible.

"We have materially reduced the unusually large Republican majority always obtained on National issues in that state and that insures the election of President Wilson in November by an impressive majority just as a Republican plurality of 12,500 in September 1892, precluded the election of President Cleveland in November.

"It is the first time United States senators have ever been elected in Maine by popular vote, and the sentiment as to national issues is to be gauged by the vote cast upon the same issues in other years."

Hert Gives Out Statement

Chicago, Sept. 11.—"Maine gives the first appeal for a return to a protective tariff and the first answer to the Adamson bill Alvin T. Hert, western Republican campaign manager, said tonight. "There is not even a trace of cold comfort for the Democrats in the relations from the Pine tree state. The Progressive party was strong in Maine and the Democrats knew it and counted on the fact to bring them victory. The Progressives and Republicans are one in Maine today and as they are in Maine they are in the union. The victory today assures us of victory in November. The victory means that Maine has had enough of the Wilson administration."

TRACTION SITUATION IN NEW YORK SERIOUS

SURFACE CAR TRANSIT VIRTUALLY AT A STANDSTILL

Subway and Elevated Facilities Effect More than at Any Time Since Strike was Called—Labor Leaders Confer on Question of Seeking Sympathetic Strike.

New York, Sept. 11.—With surface car transit virtually at a standstill in Manhattan, the Bronx, Yonkers and parts of Westchester county and with subway and elevated facilities affected more than at any time since the Interborough Rapid Transit strike was called last Thursday, the traction situation in New York tonight assumed a more serious aspect.

Labor leaders held conferences during the day on the question of seeking a sympathetic strike among various crafts which if successful would call out 750,000 workers in the Metropolitan district. The first demonstration of a sympathetic strike came today when union teamsters employed by two brick-making concerns quit their posts rather than haul sand to the New York Railway company power houses.

Hugh Frayne, an organizer of the American Federation of Labor, predicted tonight that a sympathetic strike would be called within a week among several trades closely affiliated with the operation of traction lines numbering approximately seven thousand men. These would include longshoremen, powerhouse employees, teamsters and stationary engineers and firemen, he asserted.

Action by international officers of these organizations would be necessary before a strike could be called, Mr. Frayne said.

Disorder occurred at several points today and arrests were frequent. At one point strikers piled cobblestones on the track stopping a surface car which they stoned. A woman passenger was stunned when she was knocked down by the rush to get off the car. The strikers lifted the motorman and conductor to their shoulders and started to their hall with them, but policemen rescued the men.

The traveling public suffered more inconvenience today than at any time since the strike started. Great throngs sought the subway and station platforms were packed. Several women fainted in the crush.

Police Commissioner Woods ordered an investigation into charge made before the public commission by men who said they were strikebreakers. The men declared they had been held prisoner in a car barn and were beaten by employees of a strike-breaking agency when they demanded their pay and right to leave. Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Interborough Rapid Transit company denied that strike-breakers were being mistreated.

Nearly 6,000 policemen, according to the police department are engaged in strike duty.

DUNNE STATES HIS RENOMINATION IS ASSURED BEYOND QUESTION

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Governor Edward F. Dunne, today issued the following statement regarding his primary contest for re-nomination:

"I have steadfastly and honestly refrained from complicating my candidacy for governor with the candidacies of other men for other offices and have discountenanced recrimination and vituperation in the campaign, going so far as to cause the suppression of documents of that character. In view of this impartial attitude on my part the resolution passed by a majority of the Democratic county central committee last Saturday could only have been caused by mistake or unworthy motives, and it has turned out to be a boomerang, which will react upon the person whom it was intended to help. My renomination next Wednesday is assured beyond all question."

MAY EXHUME BODY

Chicago, Sept. 11.—The Italo-American Republican League of Illinois has endorsed the following candidates: Frank O. Lowden for governor, John G. Oglesby for lieutenant governor, Louis L. ### CHICAGO BAKERS MAY LEAVE SIZE OF FIVE CENT LOAF OF BREAD

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—A reduction by one third in the size of the five cent loaf of bread appeared tonight to have been decided upon by Chicago bakers instead of an increase in price. City officials announced that bakers had purchased large quantities of municipal stamps for half pound loaves instead of the three quarter pound stamp formerly used.

United States District Attorney Clyne who is investigating the bread situation with a view to possible prosecution under the Sherman Anti-trust law said tonight that the weight of the five cent loaf had been reduced by some Chicago bakers a week ago. Clyne said today he was having difficulty learning the costs of bread manufacture.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—There will be no woman prosecutor appointed to prosecute Mrs. Iva Barnes, who is charged with shooting down her husband in a church park, State's Attorney Hoyne announced tonight.

Mrs. Barnes, who was indicted for murder by a grand jury applied for bond today. Arguments were set for September 18th.

ELEVEN DROWN WHEN BRIDGE SPAN COLLAPSES

SECOND ATTEMPT TO BRIDGE THE ST. LAWRENCE AT QUEBEC FAILS

Massive Center Span Breaks While Being Put Into Place on Hydraulic Jacks and Throws Ninety Men Into Water—All but Eleven are Rescued.

Quebec, Que., Sept. 11.—With the loss of eleven lives today the second attempt to bridge the St. Lawrence river here, resulted in a failure when the massive center span weighing 5,100 tons suddenly collapsed and fell into the river. Of the ninety men caught on the span when it began to sway all were rescued except eleven and of these only four bodies have been found.

The span was being raised from pontoons and was about fifteen feet above the water when from some undetermined cause it sank into the river which is one hundred feet deep at this place.

The St. Lawrence river was filled with many boats at the time of the accident and on the hills along the shore were hundreds of persons who came by rail and automobile to see the culmination of the mighty engineering project.

The big steel frame was taken in tow to the gap which it was expected to fill.

Shortly after eight o'clock the pontoons reached the allotted place and were withdrawn by tugs leaving the massive girder resting on hydraulic jacks. These had begun to raise the big span while crowds shouted, thinking that they had seen the most impressive ceremony of the bridge raising. The spectators began to leave when suddenly there was a roar of breaking steel and the span dived into the water.

The ninety men or more who were on the span were thrown into the river, about sixty five were rescued by pleasure craft. Others swam to safety.

At a late hour tonight eleven were listed as dead and missing. First reports were much exaggerated and gave the list of dead as eighty or ninety.

The collapse of the initial span of the Quebec bridge August 29th, 1907, was one of the greatest disasters in engineering history. Then sixty engineers and workmen perished. The loss to the government in subsidies and guaranteed bonds was about $8,000,000.

The span which fell today weighed more than 5,000 tons and was 640 feet long.

Accounts differ concerning the collapse. All agree however, that the pontoons had been released and that the span was being lifted by the massive hydraulic jacks. According to some spectators the northern end of the span gave way, others declared the structure buckled at the center.

CALHOUN ELEVATOR AND DEPOT DESTROYED IN FRANKLIN FIRE

Noontide Blaze Burns Two Buildings to Ground and Threatens Two Residence Blocks—Origin Unknown.

Fire of unknown origin discovered a short time before noon Monday at the grain elevator of W. C. Calhoun, of Franklin, destroyed that building completely and burned the depot of the C. B. & Q. A car load of straw on a nearby siding, the property of Henry Slack, was also destroyed.

The elevator was full of corn and oats, fifteen thousand bushels having been placed in storage. The loss will approximate $15,000, of which sum $6,000 is the estimated cost of the buildings burned.

The blaze may have started in the engine room, flames when first seen seemed to be making their way toward the roof.

Each one of the houses to the west of the fire caught at some time and it was only by hard fighting that the blaze was checked. The burning of one structure alone, the house occupied by Mrs. Dugger would probably have meant the destruction of considerable residence area.

METHODIST APPOINTMENTS NOT YET ANNOUNCED

List Will Probably be Read This Morning—Rumor Still Current That Dr. F. A. McCarty Will Go To Bloomington.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 11.—(Sp. J. A.)—The Methodist conference adjourned tonight at 8:30 after voting to meet Tuesday morning at 8:30 o'clock. No appointments were read but it is assumed that the entire list will be made known tomorrow morning. This is the first time for a number of years that the appointments have not been announced Monday afternoon or evening, followed by adjournment.

The business of the conference has been pushed along rapidly but so many big questions have had consideration that the days have been crowded. Rumors persist that Dr. F. A. McCarty will go to the First church in Bloomington. This report has been current for two days and meets alternately with denial and affirmation.

If Dr. McCarty does go to the Bloomington church, Rev. F. B. Madden may succeed him as superintendent and one of the possibilities mentioned for the Grace church pastor is Rev. F. A. Havighorst. Several years ago the people of Grace church made an effort to secure Dr. Havighorst, who is one of the strong members of the conference. As previously mentioned Rev. G. W. Flagg, pastor of Canterbury church, is likely to take work elsewhere and Rev. N. M. Riggs of Quincy is named as one of his possible successors.

Sunday was a very busy day for the ministers and an immense throng gathered at the armory to hear Bishop Wilson and attend the annual love feast. At the afternoon session Monday more anxiety and nervousness was observed than usual because so little had been decided concerning appointments. The people of Springfield have entertained the delegates in a most cordial manner.

BRINTON ANSWERS CHARGE THAT HE IS UNFAIR TO UNION LABOR

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—William B. Brinton of Dixon, Ill., candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor replied tonight to a charge made today at Springfield by John H. Walker, president of the Illinois State Federation of Labor, that he was unfair to union labor.

"Mr. Walker does not know what he is talking about and apparently cares less," Brinton said. "I have been a manufacturer of agricultural implements for twenty years and in all that time I haven't had a single labor dispute, not one. In all those years no effort has been made to unionize any plant in which I was interested, no question of union or non union has arisen, no workman has been asked whether he was a unionist or non-unionist."

Brinton will close his campaign tomorrow at Peoria. He issued a statement tonight predicting he would carry Cook county and 84 others out of the 102 in the state.

FIRE DAMAGES STEAMER.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 11.—Fire broke out in a shipment of excelsior in the aftercargo hold of the Steamer Beaver bound from Portland to San Francisco when off the Mendocino Coast early today, and was kept under batteded hatches while the vessel raced to this port. There was no panic among the 153 passengers.

THE BIRTH RECORD

BRITISH CAPTURE FOUR VILLAGES

Throw Forces Across
Struma River on Greek-Macedonian Front

SERBS ROUT BULGARS

Berlin Reports Russ Attacks Along Stockhod River and in Galicia Failed

RUSS SUCCESSFUL IN ARMENIA

Probably the most significant move today was that of the British in the Struma region of the Greek-Macedonian front. Here the British after hard fighting, threw their forces across the Struma at Neochori (Neochari), at the southern end of Lake Tahninos (Lake Tahninos) which lies between Seres and Orfano and at several other places. In addition four villages were captured and held notwithstanding heavy counterattacks by the Teuton allies. Whether this offensive by the British means the commencement of an attempt at a drive thru Bulgaria or is merely a maneuver to throw the British line near Kavala, which is about twenty five miles east of Neochori, has not been made apparent. From the west of the Vardar river to Lake Doiran, the French are violently bombarding Bulgarian positions and on the front held by the Serbians, the Bulgarians have been compelled to withdraw.

In the Roumanian theater the Austrians are in retreat before the Roumanians in the Maros and Toplitz Valleys, while to the south of Hermannstadt the Roumanians have occupied the village of Helmsar. Vienna admits a further withdrawal of the Austrian forces near Gergyo. Heavy fighting continues in Dobruja and there have been small infantry engagements along the entire Danube front.

On the eastern front, according to Berlin Russian attacks along the Stockhod river northwest of Kovel and in Galicia between the Dniester and Zlota Lipa rivers with Hatzetz the objective, failed with sanguinary losses to the Russians. On the Somme front in France to the south of the river in the sectors of Berny-en-Santerre, Verdunovillers and Chaulnes, the artillery duels between the French and Germans were especially violent.

The fierce fighting which has been in progress in Turkish Armenia for a week continues in the region of Ognott, with the tide of battle still going in favor of the Russians according to Petrograd. In Persia the Russians have occupied the town of Bana, near Sakki.

The usual bombardments and various small infantry engagements have taken place on the Italian front.

CITY SCHOOLS OPEN AUSPICIOUSLY

The city schools opened yesterday with a large attendance at all schools. The high school has the largest enrollment in the history of the school, 410. At the Franklin school there are 285, at the Washington school 295, at Lafayette 201 and at Morton 99. The entire enrollment of the grade schools will not be known until the opening of the Jefferson school, which was delayed on account of the case of infantile paralysis, which occurred recently. The open air school has also delayed opening on this account.

Superintendent Perrin is very busy arranging for the night classes to be conducted under the rulings of the University Extension scheme. From all appearances many of the city teachers will take advantage of this opportunity.

ZELL'S GROCERY

The Man From the Country

The Man From the Country

I. S. DUNN

Republican Candidate for Member
House of Representatives

John H. Walker, president of the Federation of Labor says in the News Letter that you are "smarting under the sting of having been misrepresented at the last session of the legislature by men who have opposed your interests. The working people of Sangamon and Morgan counties, have begun an earnest effort to bring about the election of representatives who will give labor a square deal." He then states that Hon. E. S. Merritt had the only near decent record from a labor standpoint.

Union men may correct this fault this time by subordinating other issues, and doing as the wet and dry people do—forget all else and "plump" three votes for a man who will look after their interests.

I. S. Dunn, of Divernon, is such a man. The Divernon local No. 146, U. M. W. of A., has expressed an absolute confidence in the fairness and honesty of Mr. Dunn, and after living together in a small town twelve years, they should be able to judge him, they say:

Resolved, That we believe Mr. I. S. Dunn, if nominated and elected member of the House of Representatives, would be fair to all labor measures.

SAM ZATYKO, Sec.

ROBT. WIDOWFIELD, Pres.

I wish to say to the members of labor unions that if elected I will vote for the bills included in the Federation of Labor legislative program, and will unceasingly work for their passage.

If you elect me you may rely absolutely on my unflinching support of these bills.

"I am in favor of the anti-injunction bill, the initiative and referendum, the constitutional convention, child labor bill, uniform text book, the street car men's ten hours in twelve, and other bills that were killed at the last session."

You can make my election absolutely certain if you forget other issues and stand squarely behind me with your three votes. The labor vote is the greatest force in politics, if it can only be united for its own good. Unite now on I. S. Dunn.

WILLIAM J. BUTLER ASSAILS THE STATE NEWSPAPERS

Springfield Man Declares They Are Responsible for Many Political ills
—The Evils of the Primary Law.

Telling his auditors that the present primary law made a newspaper government William J. Butler, candidate for the Republican nomination for Lieutenant-Governor, bitterly assailed the newspapers of the state and those of Chicago especially, in an address in the circuit court room Monday evening. Mr. Butler, by the way, is acknowledged to be an able and forceful speaker.

"The newspapers," said Mr. Butler, "tell you about the awful politicians while the editors write editorials on purity in politics and then go out to a midnight conference to connive some means to stuff the ballot boxes on election day."

"I am not afraid of them," said the speaker. "If they want to take a shot at me let them come on."

Assigned Primary Law

Mr. Butler also made a bitter attack on the primary law. He maintained that it did not give the people a chance and that a poor man could not run for office. He told his hearers that they should demand a primary law that gave them the opportunity to elect precinct and township delegates to carry out their wishes. "This," said the speaker, "would be getting back to the constitution as given to us by our forefathers."

E. F. Johnston called the meeting to order and introduced Mr. Butler in a few well chosen words. Mr. Butler said in part:

"Two years ago I came to you and said if you would elect me to the legislature I would not be a candidate for re-election. You elected me and I have kept my word and am here tonight to speak a word for Morgan county."

Mr. Butler then launched into an expose of the weakness of the present primary law. "The present primary law," said the speaker, "is the most damnable piece of legislation ever conceived. The first legislature chosen under it produced Lorimer which disgraced the state from Maine to California."

High Cost of Running for Office

"The office of governor will go to the highest bidder. I have heard," said Mr. Butler, "that one candidate has spent over $600,000 and have seen told that the others have already spent over $100,000 each. Think of spending that much to serve the people four years for $5,000 a year. The primary law is good for the newspapers and the man who has the most money can get the publicity through advertising in the newspapers."

Mr. Butler said the primary law had thrown the government into the hands of the newspapers and especially in the hands of the newspapers of Chicago.

"If Morgan county wants representation in the legislature," said the speaker, "the voters must center on one man. If this is done you have a good chance, as Sangamon county has several candidates this year and the vote will be split between them."

Newspapers Need Reforming

"The newspapers need reforming," said Mr. Butler, "more than anything else in the state. They are trying to tell you how to cast your ballot and whom to vote for. They are telling you of the awful politicians and at the same time the editors who are writing editorials about purity in politics are attending midnight conferences conniving some means to stuff the ballot boxes. The newspapers sell not only their advertising columns but their editorial columns as well."

"I am not afraid of any of them," shouted the speaker. "If they want to take a shot at me let them come on."

The speaker told his hearers that they had a solemn duty to perform. That duty is to see that the Republican party seizes the ship of state and guides it for the next four years. "They tell you," said Mr. Butler, "that you have had peace with honor. I say that it is a lie. We have peace out it is with disgrace and dishonor. What the citizens want is a government that will protect them wherever they are. Mr. Wilson has stood by and seen American citizens shot down in cold blood. His only reply has been I will not interfere because it may cause trouble."

The Democratic Platform

Mr. Butler then took up the Democratic platform of 1912. He pointed out what Mr. Wilson had written in the platform regarding the protection of American citizens both on the high seas and beyond the borders of the country. The speaker said that the pledge had not been kept. He also called attention to what Gov. Dunne had said four years ago. At that time Gov. Dunne, Mr. Butler said, had pointed to the extravagance of the Republican legislature in spending $28,000,000. Gov. Dunne asked to be elected and he would stop the extravagance. The people had taken him at his word and had elected him and the last legislature had spent $28,000,000.

"You have heard a great deal the past two years about the horrors of war and the virtues of peace," said the speaker. "I want to call your attention to the horrors of peace and the virtues of war."

Mr. Butler then presented in a graphic manner what peace had done for countries and what war had done. He held the close attention of his audience and was frequently interrupted by applause.

At the close of the meeting the chairman E. F. Johnston thanked Mr. Butler for coming and giving the address. He said that it would be of great help to Republicans in the county and would undoubtedly result in much good for the Republican cause.

DR. R. O. POST RETURNED.

Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., was cordially greeted by his people Sunday morning and told something of his experiences while absent. He said the place at which he remained was visited by a rather small colony of tourists but they were the choicest of the earth. There was a multi-millionaire whose manners were wholly unostentatious and there were men great in the moral and intellectual world who were delightful companions. Sunday services were conducted in a schoolhouse which was well filled and to which the speaker said he walked two and a half miles.

One Sunday a man in ordinary citizen garb addressed the gathering. He read his prayers from a little book in his pocket but the discourse he gave was superior in every way and well worth the five miles walk. He proved to be the dean of the Episcopal theological seminary at Harvard.

Dr. Post spoke from the words of Paul to the Galatians: "I am crucified with Christ; nevertheless I live; yet not I but Christ liveth in me and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God who loved me and gave himself for me."

The discourse was suited to the communion season which followed and was deeply impressive. The gentleman has brought back a good stock of health and energy and urged his hearers to be active in the work of the Lord.

ELECTION IN LOUISIANA

New Orleans, La., Sept. 11.—Louisiana voters in state-wide primaries tomorrow will nominate candidates for congress, railroad commissioner, judge of the state court of appeals and minor offices in various parishes to be voted for at the November election.

The Democrat members of congress in all but two districts were without opposition for renomination and already have been declared nominated by the district executive committees. Neither Republicans nor Progressives have candidates for congress or for state offices excepting in the third district where Whit P. Martin, incumbent, has been officially declared the Progressive candidate. He will be opposed in November by Wade O. Martin, Democrat.

In the sixth district former governor J. Y. Sanders and Amos L. Ponder have waged a spirited contest for nomination to succeed Representative Lewis L. Morgan, who was not an aspirant. In the seventh district Representative L. Lazaro is opposed for renomination by T. A. Edwards and A. M. Barbe. In all the other districts except the third, the incumbents will be returned to congress as they will have no opposition in the election.

Robert Roberts, incumbent, and R. B. Dawkins are contesting for the nomination as judge of the state court of appeals, second district.

John T. Michel, incumbent, has been declared the nominee for railroad commissioner from the first district.

JAMES JACOB FOUND UNCONSCIOUS.

James Jacobs a farm hand was found unconscious by the roadside just west of Diamond Grove cemetery Sunday night about 11:30 o'clock. Sheriff Graft was notified and in company with Dr. W. H. Weirich went to the scene and found Jacobs unable to talk. He was scratched about the face but so far as could be ascertained there were no serious injuries unless they were internal ones. Jacob was removed to Passavant hospital where he was resting well Monday. Nothing has been learned as to what happened to Jacobs. He has been employed in this vicinity as a farm hand for a number of years.

SOME FINE HOGS

Arthur Swain of Sinclair neighborhood recently shipped to Chicago three loads of cattle and one of hogs. The latter numbered seventy-one, averaged 276 pounds, sold for $11.25, bringing $2135, or an average of $30 each, with a trifle to spare. The animals were Poland China, about a year old. A part Mr. Swain raised and a part he bought when small. He started them after the cattle last April and at the same time fed them corn and gave them plenty of good water. "I that with grass was their feed. He fed the corn only once a day in addition to what the hogs got from the cattle."

CHAPIN WON HANDILY FROM ARENZVILLE PLAYERS

Score 11 to 3 in Sunday's Ball Game —Chapin Strong with the Stick.

Chapin was easy victor over Arenzville Sunday by the score of 11-3 at West Side ball park. Chapin tied the score in the 2nd and put the game on ice by a 3 run lead in the third.

Arenzville used four twirlers trying to stop the Chapin sluggers. Lee Stoker of Moline Three Eye League took the mound in the sixth inning but was knocked out of the box.

"Chick" Clark was there with his old time "ep" for Chapin. He kept the Arenzville hits well scattered and was given air tight support by his teammates. "Dago" Stoker, the Moline fencebuster was unable to get a hit with his four times at bat. Clark will be given a try out with Quincy next spring.

MR. 'He Has Been Tried and Has Made Good'

He is a man of mature judgment, entering the prime of life. A graduate of Illinois College and Harvard Law School, admitted to the practice of law in 1897.

For nine years he has had an active and varied experience as a lawyer.

He has served four years as County Judge and was fair and fearless in discharging official duty, as is borne out by the court records. He is thoroughly familiar with the law, governing the trial of criminal cases.

He retired from office to associate himself with one of the leading law firms of the county. This association has given him a large experience as a general practitioner along all lines.

The State's Attorney is the public prosecutor and legal adviser for the other county officials and therefore holds the most important and responsible office in the county, an office demanding a man of high character, a high sense of duty, legal training and experience.

Judge Brockhouse has these qualifications. His whole life has been one of hard work, and he has made good wherever tried, as a boy on the farm, as a student, business man, lawyer and public official. Any success attained by him has been thru industry and right living.

A vote for him is a vote for a man deserving and in every way fitted to meet the needs of this important office.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Schram, in their Hupmobile car, took Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Shreve and daughter, Helen over to Virginia to visit Mr. Shreve's uncle, the venerable Thomas Williamson, brother of the late Joseph B. Williamson of this city. Mr. Williamson will be 97 years old if he lives till November and he is yet in almost the full possession of all his faculties, is in good health and very well enjoys life. He is able to get about all right and goes out to his farm and looks after affairs. He greatly enjoyed the visit of his relatives and friends and fully entered the pleasure of the day. He has with him two unmarried daughters, one a widow and her daughter. During the day he enjoyed an auto ride out to his farm and stood the day all right. He is surely a remarkable man.

Practical Patriotism

Real patriotism and an appreciation of what war really means are shown in the will of a German citizen of Chicago who died recently. The testator left one-seventh of his $20,000 estate to the burgomaster of the city of Peine, Germany, the fund to be used for the benefit of the widows and children of soldiers killed in the European war. And, after all, it is the families of the soldiers who suffer even more than those at the front who die in battle and the Chicago man has interpreted the real sorrow of the conflict and has sought to temper it for a few of the residents of the fatherland.

Government Appropriations.

Had congress, just adjourned, appropriated a few more million dollars it would have established a record as a two billion dollar congress. Not all the increase in appropriations can be ascribed to extravagance because the expenses of this nation have grown amazingly, and it was only a few years ago when the appropriations for the first time ran up to one billion dollars. The preparedness program is in large part responsible for the increase and the country is largely of one mind as to the need for increased expenditures along this line. Nevertheless the record of congress is open to attack for appropriations made which could well have been trimmed down to a much lower figure.

Maine Result Presages National Republican Victory.

If any additional enthusiasm were needed by Republicans throughout the country they would find it in the result of the Maine election where the party won a notable victory Monday. The votes showed that Progressives almost to a man have returned to Republican ranks and the party was thus able to elect governor, auditor, two U. S. senators, four congressmen and to again assume control of the state house of representatives. Some of the big men of party took part in the campaign and the result shows how effective was their work. The issues in the campaign were built upon national defense and tariff and in more recent days the eight hour law came in for discussion.

The old political saying has been "As New York goes, so goes the nation," but now the phrase can be changed to "As Maine goes, so goes the nation."

The American Military Institute, a New Jersey corporation, organized for the purpose of giving theoretical military instruction by mail, is the latest addition to the preparedness movement, and is probably the first military correspondence school organized in the country, altho military tactics has been taught by mail in some cases by the government with some success. The organizer and head of the Institute is Henry P. Fry, a Newark lawyer, who is a graduate of the Virginia Military Institute, a former officer in the National Guard, and formerly a commander of

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

CAMPAIGN WHISKERS

Charles Fairbanks is a man of sense, whose discourse gives delight. I leaned against his cow-lot fence, and talked with him all night. I said, "I wish you would discuss the issues of the day," and, with no sign of futile fuss, he spoke a while this way: "I voice my views at your heart; I think chin whiskers are the best, viewed as a work of art. It is a whiskery campaign that now pervades the land; and whiskers fancy, whiskers plain, are seen on every hand. So far as whiskers are concerned, each man must dress his weird, and some men say they would be derailed before they'd wear a beard; and some men wear a bunch of hay, to every zephyr flung, and there the orioles, in May, build nests and rear their young. I do not favor drastic laws to govern whiskeriness; let men still grow upon their jaws and chins their patch of greens. If laws were passed our beards to kill, we'd surely take it hard; let whiskers flourish as they will—but sideboards should be barred."

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

IN REPLY TO "THE HUGHES SPINACH"

We've been reading in the papers what Walt Mason has to say about "The Hughes Spinach" and we're up in arms today. We don't believe that germs can ever find a place in the "hay," as Mason calls it. Hughes wears upon his face. For he will keep his whiskers as neat, and clean, and pure, as he is bound to keep the White House, of this we're very sure. Walt says germs will attack us, and thinks it isn't fair, but please remember, never yet have germs grown in Hughes' hair. We're glad to see his whiskers, he's descended from a race that wears the natural covering God's given for the face. We're learning too, these later days, that germs are things of doubt, except the evil germs in thought, and Hughes will root them out. He's handed down decisions that were very clean and fair, and he's bound to treat the people just as honest and as square. While he was judging on the bench he caught a grander view so he's standing for the women and admits they're humans too. We won't catch any germs, but the nations, all forsooth, see this man behind the whiskers is bound to hand them truth. So let's boost this man of courage, let's boost him all we can, for every act he's doing proves he's every inch a man. And we know no filthy germs will ever enter in when we boost him to the White House with the whiskers on his chin.

S. A. Hughes.

Seek to Turn Students to France

If the United States be held responsible for the attitude of some citizens living abroad this country is likely to find more disfavor in the eyes of the kaiser and his associates. A group of Americans living in Paris headed by James H. Hyde, noted scholar and multi-millionaire, have begun a movement to arouse the interest of American students in French universities and get them to come to France for study instead of to Germany as was largely done before the war. For many years previous to the war the educational sympathy between the United States and Germany was carefully and systematically fostered.

There was a German-American committee with headquarters in Berlin and affiliations in the universities of the new world. Several professors were exchanged yearly between the two countries and everything in general was done to increase the facilities and advantages of German universities for American students. No such organization existed in Paris and the prospective American student was left to himself to find a thousand difficulties in his way. Now Mr. Hyde and his associates expect to make it easy and attractive for Americans to study in the great French universities, with the end in view, of course, of this arrangement having its effect after the war.

Thus it is shown that educational advantages are, after all, rated somewhat like a commodity and the effort to divert students to France is the outgrowth of the desire to place still another weapon in the hands of the allies and to let Germany feel in this new particular the strength of her combined foes.

ISSAC WATSON HOST TO FRIENDS AT BURGEOO DINNER

Large Company Gathered Sunday to Enjoy Hospitality of Well Known Citizen.

It has become almost a day like Christmas or the Fourth of July for the many friends of Isaac Watson, south of this city when the time for his annual "home coming" arrives. They have almost as much expectancy for the day as they do for any legal holiday and well they may, for on that day the large circle of his friends are invited to the beautiful country home of this community pillar for one glorious good time and feast.

This year Mr. Watson was not as strong in health as usual and many of his friends did not know whether or not they would get to enjoy the usual good time. Mr. Watson, however did not disappoint them and over two hundred, outside of the relatives, gathered around the large table Sunday to partake of that delicacy which has made Mr. Watson famous in the state, burgoo soup. No one knows, better than he how to prepare it and it was even better this year than ever. Sixty squirrels, besides pounds and pounds of other meats were boiled down into one of the finest brews that the tongue ever tasted. Mr. Watson, after many years experience has found out that the greatest joy on this earth is not to succeed in business only, for he has done that, but to give some pleasure to others.

The happy expression on the faces of everybody bore evidence to the host that his gift to his friends was appreciated more than ever before. Over one hundred gallons of soup were served, besides cake and ice cream with cigars on the waiting list, so each and every one was satisfied. Men from this and adjoining counties were present, all testifying to the large circle of friends of Mr. Watson.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Reynolds and family, Len Watson and family, John Tayman and family, Chas. Watson and family, Lloyd Magill and family, Dr. Stewart, Claud Winter and family, D. (Rapp) and wife, Dr. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller and son, Dick Butler and family, Doc Butler and family, Sam Butler and family, John Cain and family, Geo. CHICAGO NEWSPAPER INFLUENCE
IS BACKING HULL

Committee in Charge of His Campaign Points to Support in Cook County and Down State

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 11.—Influential newspaper endorsements and legislators' endorsements have come strong for Senator Morton D. Hull, the progressive Republican candidate for the nomination for governor, in the closing days of the campaign. This is the statement of the Hull committee.

Today Senator Hull and his campaign managers expressed confidence that he would carry Cook county, would run first or second in every down-state county, and would win the nomination with a large plurality.

The Chicago Tribune today carries its list of endorsements headed by its endorsement of Morton D. Hull for governor. In an editorial announcing its decision to support Senator Hull for governor, the Tribune yesterday said:

The Tribune has quarreled with Mr. Hull on more occasions than it has quarreled with Mr. Smith, and it is not so vehemently, at least more often, than it has quarreled with Mr. Lowden. Nevertheless it is the best judgment of the Tribune that the state of Illinois will do better under Mr. Hull than it will under Mr. Smith or Mr. Lowden. * * * We believe Hull would make the best governor."

The leading evening paper in Chicago, the Daily News, which maintains a political investigating bureau, on Saturday evening printed in its review of candidates for various offices, twenty-six columns of details with reference to the merits and demerits of the various candidates. It devotes nearly a column to the governorship candidates. The Daily News endorses Hull. It said:

"In the opinion of the Daily News, the conscientious and efficient service thus far performed for the state by Senator Hull entitles him to the confidence and support of party voters who desire a progressive, industrious, fearless and independent governor."

Downstate legislators are conspicuous among those whose endorsements of Senator Hull were given out today by the Hull campaign committee, of which Logan Hay, of Springfield, former State Senator, is secretary.

QUALITY VERSUS QUANTITY

Many housewives make a vital mistake in choosing some of their foodstuffs on the basis of quantity.

It has been proven time and again brand of, say Baking Powder for expensive while the highest price is not always the best.

There's a happy medium in everything. When you select foods, be careful. Don't choose any particular brand of, say Baking Powder for example, just because you get a big can for a small price.

The risk you take in ruining your entire baking and losing the cost of the materials involved is not anywhere equal to the small amount saved on the price of the Baking Powder.

Then again, because the price is high, don't think the quality is the best. Some women do, and they are losing money.

Look for the happy medium. You'll find it. Choose a brand that costs a moderate price and you'll find it more economical to buy and more economical to use.

The best baking powder in the world can be made so as to sell for 25c per pound.

Most every woman will find a Waist to her liking at the PHELPS & OSBORNE store in the charming new fall styles, now showing moderately priced at $5.95 to $1.30.

IN NEW WORK

W. C. Springgate, last year in charge of the commercial department at the Jacksonville high school and Prof. W. D. Geer, formerly local principal of the Brown's business college are again in the city after spending three weeks in Chicago at a special training school for representatives of the Shelton school of business training. The two men are now connected with the school and will for several months work in territory adjacent to this city. They expect in a few weeks to open a Quincy branch of the school and may also accept an option which they now have on Minneapolis territory.

WHITE HALL

Sunday evening absentees from the city included Clarence M. Fox at Winchester and Harry McMahon at Carrollton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bradley of Pomona, Cal., spent a few days recently with Mrs. M. A. McCracken. Mr. Bradley is a nephew of Mrs. McCracken.

Mrs. R. H. Harrison and daughter, Miss Madalyn, went to Pearl Saturday morning to visit over Sunday with her mother, Mrs. John Lane and family.

Dow Davis has received an honorable discharge from the regular service on the Mexican border. He was a bugler and a broken wrist incapacitated him from duty. He will spend a time with his father, Fletcher B. Davis, in Texas, and will come on to White Hall early in the fall.

The Springfield Motor lub extends an invitation to all motorists to call at their tent on the state fair grounds and rest when tired. The invitation is extended thru Clarence J. Root, who has charge of the tent.

The Revel Pinkerton property at the corner of Franklin and Jacksonville streets has been purchased by Dr. F. N. McLaren. The lot is 90x170, and contains two houses. The corner house will be improved and the one near the sanitarium will be remodelled. Mr. Pinkerton is preparing to move to Cuba, Mo. The site is an ideal one for hotel or business purposes, it being along Whiteside Park, and Dr. McLaren will make no improvement that would preclude any move to the acquisition of the site for such purpose. Dr. McLaren feels that the need of additional hotel facilities here will cause a move in that direction at no distant date, and is ready to co-operate in such a movement.

A chicken fry and chicken pie supper will be held at Berdan, seven miles south of White Hall, on Friday evening, Sept. 29th, in the interest of the Burlington Way. Ross Reynolds, Louis Rafferty and R. B. Pinkerton were in White Hall last Friday evening to enlist the co-operation of White Hall in the enterprise. Their visit was for the purpose of reviving the proposed White Hall booster trip to Berdan that was rained out early in the summer, and they extended an invitation to White Hall to attend with the band. The speakers will be Carl Weber of Jacksonville, president, and A. E. Nissen of Cedar Rapids, secretary of the Burlington Way. R. B. Pinkerton will be master of ceremonies, he being president of the Berdan-Wrights Good Roads Club. The speakers will arrive on the C. & A. train at 5:35 p. m.

The Berdan-Wrights Good Roads Club was organized last May. At that time White Hall arranged to go there on a booster trip with the band, but rain caused repeated postponements of the visit and final abandonment. Now the trip is being revived for the 29th inst. The Berdan visitors Friday evening conferred with local road promoters, including President E. C. Boehm, Postmaster J. E. Wyatt, C. A. Ruckel and R. B. Pearce. They returned assured of the full co-operation of the people of White Hall, on whom much depends for the success of the event and the advancement of the good roads interests in their section. Greenfield and Wrights are very much interested, and a large number are expected from these places.

CAP'S CLOTHES FOR MEN ARE 100 PER CENT QUALITY. THE LINE IS READY NOW. T. M. TOMLINSON.

HALE WILL BE BROUGHT HERE

William Hale who is serving a sentence in the Springfield jail on the charge of carrying concealed weapons will be brought to Jacksonville to answer a charge of assault with intent to kill.

A few days ago Hale in company with a man named George Murray, boarded a Wabash freight train in the local yards to steal a ride to Springfield. They were put off the train by brakeman C. E. Englebert. Hale, it is charged, pulled a revolver and fired at Englebert.

They afterward beat their way to Springfield where Hale was arrested and a revolver found on his person. He was fined for carrying concealed weapons and being unable to pay the fine was sent to jail. Afterward he was identified by Englebert as the one who fired at him here. H. A. Biggs, special agent of the Wabash went before Justice Dyer and swore out the warrant and Hale will be brought here probably today to answer the charge.

WHY I AM SUPPORTING MR. HUGHES.

(By Everett Colby of New Jersey.)
I am supporting Mr. Hughes for President because I know that he has the qualities of a scrupulous, capable and firm administrator. I have known Mr. Hughes personally as boy and man, and the qualities which he shows in a personal way are the qualities which spell success and efficiency of a far more than personal nature.

A Simple Illustration.
To take a very simple illustration: I recall with great interest how Mr. Hughes as a young man and a member of the same church with me, did the inconspicuous work of the church with just as much energy and brains and hard-headed devotion as if he were carrying thru a piece of statesmanship of far-reaching importance, in which great issues as well as his personal reputation and his personal ideals were concerned.

As University Trustee.
Again, as a trustee of Brown University, in which capacity I am also his colleague. I have seen the far-reaching effect of his splendid foresight and knowledge of men in determining the policies of the university. I have seen the widening circle of his sympathetic and very liberal attitude toward cutters of education and matters of life carry across the plane of the educational world.

Persistent Devotion to Ideals and Policies.
I do not assume for a moment that a man's personal virtues and potential qualities of statesmanship are the same thing, or that one is in any degree necessarily proof of the other. I do know that the qualities of steadfastness, of persistent, hard-headed devotion to ideas and policies, of rigid insistence upon bringing them to practical realization, which Mr. Hughes has shown in his personal relations, are evidence of the qualities most needed in the national executive—insight, liberality, persuasive intelligence, and along with these executive insistence.

His Personality.
To those of us that know Mr. Hughes well, the tradition of "judicial coldness," which seems to cling to the popular idea of him is not far short of humorous. Keen as a razor always, the play of his mind upon any subject shows always that saving humor, that quick sense of human values, which is inseparable from large endowment of mind and spirit.

One of the Pioneer Progressives.
But I am not supporting Mr. Hughes entirely on the evidence of personal relations. As Governor he was hailed by us all as a progressive. It is not too much to say that he was one of the pioneer progressives. In the long run, Progressivism is and must be a great social impulse, whatever else it is or not.

Constructive Statesmanship.
I uphold in Mr. Hughes his constructive statesmanship, as opposed to the negative intelligence in matters of state which Mr. Wilson has shown. I consider that Mr. Hughes has the faculty and quality which inevitably blaze the way for ideas and policies. Mr. Hughes has a firm sense of what is due tradition, a strong conviction of the unwisdom of brushing aside valuable safeguards for the sake of realizing apparently desirable ends. In this he is a conservative.

servantism in government.

Not a Minister of Expedience.
But this is a very different thing from being the minister of expedience. We have learned that Mr. Wilson, in eternally seeking the expedient thing, has failed in that finality and firmness, that large devotion to the main issue, which is the secret of administrative fitness.

Refusal to Sanction Unwise Measures.
Mr. Hughes has to his credit as governor some distinctly "radical" measures, if we are willing somewhat to extend the exact meaning of the word "radical." He has these measures on the one hand. On the other hand he has to his credit repeated refusals to pass measures merely because they were "radical," in however desirable a way. He has urged no "popular" legislation merely because it was popular. He would never railroad child labor bills and workmen's compensation acts thru at eleventh hours at the instance of apprehensive voters in his own party.

His Memorandum on the Two-Cent Fare Bill.

In vetoing the two-cent fare rate, he made the following memorandum, thus establishing in statesman-like form his refusal to make a magnificent gallery play at the cost of invalidating sound principles of government.

"The passage of the bill was not preceded by legislative investigation or suitable inquiry under the authority of the state. Nor is the fixing of this rate predicted on reports or statistics officially collated which would permit a fair conclusion as to the justice of its operation with reference to the railroads within its purview. It plainly reflects dissatisfaction with existing conditions and an effort to provide a remedy thru arbitrary action."

"The bill represents a policy seriously mistaken and pregnant with disaster. It is of the utmost importance that the management of our railroad corporations should be subject to strict supervision by the state and that regulations compelling the observance of the law and proper and adequate service should be enforced. It is the duty of these corporations to provide transportation of passengers and goods at reasonable rates and the state should compel the performance of this obligation."

"But injustice on the part of railroad corporations toward the public does not justify injustice on the part of the state toward the railroad corporations. The action of government should be fair and impartial, and upon this every citizen whatever his interest, is entitled to insist. We shall make matters not better but worse if to cure one wrong we establish another. The fact that those in control of railroad corporations have been guilty of grossly improper financing and of illegal and injurious discriminations in charges points clearly to the necessity of effective state action but does not require or warrant arbitrary reprisals. In dealing with these questions democracy must demonstrate its capacity to act upon deliberation and to deal justly."

Why He Vetoes the Federal Income Tax.

Again, in his memorandum accompanying the veto of the Federal Income Tax, Hughes made it very clear that he believed in a Federal Income Tax, but that he did not believe that the power to tax incomes should be granted in such terms as to subject to Federal taxation state securities, and the securities of municipalities. He stood firmly for the rights of the states. No one who has read his valuable campaign material in the fact that he vetoed the bill.

"It is certainly significant that the words 'from whatever source derived,' have been introduced into the proposed amendment as if it were the intention to make it impossible for the claim to be urged that the income from any property, even though it consists of the bonds of the state or of a municipality organized by it, will be removed from the taxing power of the Federal government. The immunity from Federal taxation that the state and its instrumentalities of government now enjoy is derived not from any express provision of the Federal Constitution, but from what has been deemed to be necessary implication. Who can say that any such implication with respect to the proposed tax will survive the adoption of this explicit and comprehensive amendment?"

"We cannot suppose that the Congress will not seek to tax incomes derived from securities issued by the state and its municipalities. It has repeatedly endeavored to lay such taxes and its efforts have been defeated only by such implied constitutional restriction, which this amendment threatens to destroy. While we may desire that the Federal government may be equipped with all necessary national powers in order that it may perform its national functions, we must be equally solicitous to secure the essential bases of state government."

"I therefore deem it my duty, as governor of the state, to recommend that this proposed amendment should not be ratified."

A Fighting Idealist.
I think it is somewhat rare in the history of the world that we find in one individual both a scrapper and a conservationist. And when we do find so united in one man these predominant qualities of a national executive I for one hasten to his support.

Judicial when he needs to be, Mr. Hughes is indeed; but by every index of his temperament, and every index of his record as governor, he is also a scrapper. He not only throws his hat into the ring for a policy concerning which he is convinced, but he goes himself into the ring after it.

Mr. Hughes' Straight and Undiluted Americanism.

I stand for the policies he stands for; for his Americanism so straight and undiluted; for his belief in our national security; for his devotion to the cause of social and industrial justice, to which during his term as governor he repeatedly gave practical expression by advocating and procuring definite measures. Above all I look to his habitual intrepid and vigorous support of his own convictions to bring this nation thru the perilous season ahead, and direct it, in foreign and domestic relations alike, to that stability which comes from knowing what one's convictions are, whether as an individual or as a nation, and from being prepared to back them to the last ditch.

D. O. K. K. EXCURSION

Those planning to go to Meredosia via the Wabash, Thursday and to return with the excursionists on the D. O. K. K. Boat Excursion must go down on the 2 o'clock train instead of the 5:11.

In a previous article on the trip a wrong impression was given regarding the train connections at 5:11. It does not connect with the Meredosia train and it will be necessary for the people planning to go to Meredosia via the Wabash to do so at 2 o'clock.

Miss Helen Madden, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. F. B. Madden, has gone to Yankton, S. D., to teach in the Yankton college conservatory of music.

To Morgan County Voters

The campaign just closing has been fair in most of its details, excepting possibly one point, which I feel should be answered plainly.

The charge has been insidiously circulated that I have not been discharging certain financial obligations. Because of a heavy fire loss suffered a few years ago, and this thru no fault of mine, I became quite heavily involved and was in debt when elected to this office.

But the facts are that I was paying then, as well as since serving as Circuit Clerk, as fast as conditions would permit, and have discharged many of these obligations. Some of them remain unsettled. However, within a reasonable time I hope to have them all fully discharged, and might add that these obligations are amply protected by insurance in the event of death. My personal expenses are down to the minimum, all forms of extravagance being carefully avoided, and my ambition is to pay all.

I would not at this, or any other time, have intimated the troubles of mine, either to the public or to my personal friends, but for the fact that this condition has been made use of.

Silence is golden, it is said, therefore I have not burdened my friends with my troubles, but feel that it is but fair to have these facts briefly outlined, that you be not misled by the methods indicated, which are only for the purpose of defeating me for the nomination.

Respectfully,

EUGENE D. PYATT.

NEW LUBRICANT RESISTS HEAT PREVENTS RAPID SEDIMENTATION

Ordinary oil breaks down under the terrific heat of an automobile engine. Within a few hours, black sediment is formed which partially clogs the remaining liquid from the friction points where lubrication is most vital. Such under-supply of oil causes friction between the metal surfaces, intense heat, loss of power and expensive repairs.

The new lubricant that resists heat prevents rapid sedimentation, insures generous lubrication, and, except where mechanical faults exist, prevents carbon.

Relative Oil Destruction

The contents of the bottles shown, illustrate the relative durability of ordinary oil and of Vedol. The new lubricant that resists heat. Vedol deposits only a small fraction as much sediment as ordinary oils.

There is a fundamental difference between ordinary oils and Vedol. Ordinary oils are unstable and therefore unserviceable because of non-heat-resisting chemical structure. Special processes of manufacture developed by this company and the use of Pennsylvania paraffine-base crude oil give Vedol, the new lubricant, its unusual chemical structure, and its remarkable heat-resisting ability.

Make this test

Clean out the crank case. Fill with kerosene. Run the motor about thirty seconds under its own power; then draw out all kerosene and refill with Vedol.

Now make a test run over a familiar road—up steep hills and along straight, level stretches. Keep a record of oil and gasoline mileage.

You will find that your motor has altogether new pickup and hill climbing ability. Vedol enables you to get the maximum mechanical efficiency from your car and to reduce your expenses. Get a five-gallon can of Vedol, and make this convincing road test.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS BEGIN WORK OF THE YEAR

Principal Callihan Made Brief Address Holding Up Ideals for Earnest Effort.

The high school auditorium presented an animated spectacle yesterday morning when the pupils assembled to begin the work of the year. A busy hum pervaded the whole apartment and the writer could hardly help wondering what would be done with the enrollment if it should continue to increase very much as the apartment seemed to be filled to its utmost capacity. The merry and chatty young people were well behaved and came to order promptly at command. Principal Callihan greeted them in a few kind words and then said substantially:

Efficiency is what we seek in this school. It is the watchword everywhere in this day of strenuous things. The efficient man is not the one who does merely exactly what is required of him and no more. That is not the man who is promoted to a better position but the one who is cheerfully ready to do all in his power. You can pass if you make a mark of 75 percent but that will not constitute you efficient pupils. You should strive for the one hundred mark and attain it as nearly as possible. The one who rises is the one who strives against odds to accomplish things.

The teachers are like officers in a corporation. They are here to lead and advise and aid you to study and make a mark in life. This is a great workshop and each pupil may feel he is drawing $7.00 a day while in school. This may seem extravagant but the one who fails to attend the school or fails in his work or drops out will find in life he will lose more than $7.00 a day would amount to here.

I hope you are not here because you have to be but because you want to be. Let us all honestly do our best in a genuine manner. Don't think you have done anything smart when you slip one over on the teacher (please excuse that phrase.) It may seem smart at the time but you will be the loser.

Always be on time. In business houses if you are marked late twice see what the result will be; dismissal. If you live at a distance get up a little earlier and by all means be prompt. There will be an assembly here every morning at 8:45 and we expect to be here 15 minutes and I hope to give you something worth while. Then for a short time we assemble in the afternoon and again I expect you to be here on time unless detained for a good reason. All you gain here in learning, promptness and discipline will be useful to you in after life. The teachers are not here to make you do things; this is not a kindergarten but an assembly of young ladies and gentlemen who should know their best good. It will do no good to annoy the teachers; aid them in every way; they are your friends. Work industriously; play and work don't mix successfully; there is a time for each and if you honestly keep up with your work and your gymnasium practice you will have little time for anything else.

I hope for good things in the high school this year and shall earnestly work to that end and so will the teachers and if you work with us we may expect fine results.

For Congressman at Large STEPHEN H. CUMMINS SPRINGFIELD, ILL.

His ability as a campaign orator has helped the Republican party to success in many campaigns and he was one of the staunch supporters of Senator Sherman.

Endorses full suffrage for women, and favors the Budget System of Appropriations, the abolition of the " Pork Barrel," a Protective Tariff, Preparedness and the " Rural System of Credits" to aid the Farmers.

A son of a Mexican soldier, he is a self-made man, has been in turn a farmer's boy, country school teacher, newspaper reporter, cashier of a bank, assistant Attorney General, a successful lawyer, and a loyal Republican from boyhood. He has been intimately acquainted with every Governor and United States Senator since the days of John A. Logan, who by the way complimented Mr. Cummins for his part in the election of General Logan to the United States senate in his memorable contest in 1885.

Mr. Cummins owns and operates two farms in Sangamon county and takes pride in his knowledge of the farmers' problems.

There's a Reason Why

This Man Is In a Position to Accomplish More for the 45th District Than Any Other Candidate.

THOS. E. LYON REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR MEMBER OF THE LEGISLATURE

Precedence in caucus and in committees of legislature goes to the members who have served the longest.

If Mr. Lyon is returned for this session, there will not be half a dozen members who can claim precedence.

This long continued service gave Mr. Lyon a position last session on the judiciary, appropriations, rules and steering committees, four of the most important committees of the assembly.

His value to this District and to the State ought to have increased with each year's service, and believing that it has, he again asks your support, pledging, if nominated and elected, to work and vote.

First, for all those measures that help to raise the standard of human life and living. This includes all sane measures that tend to lessen the evils of the liquor traffic.

Second, that the burdens of the taxpayers may be lessened, he will continue to fight for a strict budget system for all departments of the state government, the entire elimination of "Deficiency Appropriations" which have grown enormously during the past four years, and a careful restriction of all appropriations to the absolute needs of the state government.

Third, if nominated and elected, he will faithfully represent Morgan County in all matters that may be of special interest to her people.

Aside from a consideration of Mr. Lyon's sterling character, his absolute fairness to all sides, his proven ability as a legislator, it is a matter of common sense that Mr. Lyon should be returned to the assembly.

Telephone Company, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Two years ago Mr. Cummins entered the race for congressman-at-large and although the dark horse and a late entrant for the position, he pulled a surprising number of votes. Chicago favors him perhaps more than any "down state" candidate for state know him to be fair and honest and still stand on his feet if the rural communities that not generally work for this man who is pledged to their interests. Mr. Cummins can be nominated.
The question of ability does not enter here for Stephen H. Cummins has gained his present prestige through ability. A desire to serve his country, Cummins to Mr. Cummins as a family trait for the late Senator Cummins of Iowa, the best friend the farming interests had in the senate, is Mr. Cummins' own cousin.

WHO BELIEVE AS HE DOES.

Mr. Voter, here is the proposition—If you vote for Stephen H. Cummins you vote for a man who will work for your interests. Look over the platform he stands on—and still stand on it elected. If you want a conscientious worker for the common good, work and vote for Stephen H. Cummins for congressman-at-large at the Republican primaries on September 21st. Mr. Cummins is appreciative and will thank every man who helps him to victory. This is a fair, square statement made in the interest of a fair, square, out-in-the-open, non-factional candidate.

Primary, Wednesday, Sept. 13th.

FOR GOVERNOR

FRANK O. LOWDEN

Colonel Frank O. Lowden, of Oregon, Ogle County, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor of Illinois.

He is well known as a man of the highest character, integrity and principles. His strong, clean cut, honest and frank declaration of principles leaves no question as to his attitude concerning public affairs in our state. His familiarity with state and official business and his long and honorable career in public life qualify him for the duties of the office to which he aspires.

His absolute refusal to attack in any way his opponents for the nomination means a united and victorious Republican party in Illinois. To quote Colonel Lowden: "So far as my own life is concerned, that has been an open book that all may read. There is not an office on earth to obtain which I would build myself up on the ruins of someone else. I am going to neither answer charges against me nor make charges against anyone. In order to put through the policies for which I stand, I will need the support of a united party and I want that support in order to make it worth while to give up my farm home for Springfield for four long years."

We earnestly recommend and urge the Republicans of Morgan county to go to the polls on Wednesday, Sept. 13, and vote and work for Colonel Lowden.

For Governor Morton D. Hull

Do This For Hughes And Illinois

The Republicans' Chance To Cleanse Their Party and Win Control in the State and Nation

WITH Hughes for President at the head of the ticket and Senator Morton D. Hull, the candidate of the reunited Progressive Republicans for the nomination for Governor, the party in Illinois has reached a new-day Opportunity. Achievement and Progress loom ahead.

But now—in this promising hour—there arises the grave possibility of a retreat to the dark days of the past—with Lorimerism, spoils and gang rule.

Hull, with his 10-year record of constructive achievement in governing Illinois, is leading the movement in this campaign for state efficiency. But this does not "harmonize" with the old system of Spoils and Special Privilege.

Hence Hull is opposed by the "Slush Fund" spoilsmen, the Thompson-Lundin-Ettleson-City Hall Lorimerites, the "Jackpot" plunderbund, the "Bathroom" legislators, the Allen bill "fixers," and the Cannon reactionary element that joined with them in forming the "Peoria Combine."

This "Peoria Combine" made Thompson National Committeeman and "harmonized" behind Lowden for Governor.

Their recipe for political "harmony" and "regularity" is to give every boss and his candidate what they want.

Hull's type of harmony is to reunite progressive republicans, former progressives and independents; and to make the party's record of administration harmonize with the pledges in the party platform.

Never before, perhaps, since Hull led the fight that gave the direct primaries to the people of Illinois, has the outcome of a primary election been so vital to the interests of the state and party.

For this is presidential year. Moreover, the former progressives have joined progressive republicans in opposing the plan of the "Peoria Combine" to build up an old-time Tammany through the nomination of Lowden.

On Wednesday you will decide this crisis, whether you vote or not!

If you neglect to vote, the "Peoria Combine" might succeed.

But what would be the effect on the chances of Hughes if the republican ticket be thus afflicted with Lorimerism and Thompsonitis?

Let us help Hughes, not hinder him. Let the voters look forward—not backward.

The nomination of Hull, with his aggressively honest record, would gain legions of independent voters to the ticket in November. Hosts of men and women yearn deliverance from democratic rule and from bi-partisan pillage.

Hull has the strength to be nominated Wednesday if the rank and file turn out and vote. He is the only republican candidate for Governor who has fought the "Jack-potters" and corruptionists in Illinois.

He is the only candidate qualified for the governorship by personal experience in state affairs. Neither Lowden nor Smith—his two opponents—can match his constructive record, of which but a very small part is mentioned on this page.

The "Peoria Combine" depends upon Smith, the third candidate for governor, to draw enough votes away from Hull to "put over" Lowden. So all good progressive republicans should set aside Wednesday to concentrate their votes on Hull.

Don't vote for Lowden, the "Peoria Combine" candidate. And don't waste your vote by supporting Smith, whose chances are practically zero.

Vote for Morton D. Hull and win. He has the courage and independence to make Illinois stand before the Nation as an inspiring example of clean, progressive government.

Let Hull's untiring service in the interest of the people be continued.

And remember, a vote for Hull is a vote for Hughes.

HULL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

LOGAN HAY, Secretary, 124½ East Sixth Street, Springfield, Ill.

CHICAGO OFFICES, Hotel Morrison, Chicago

What the Press Thinks of Hull

Says the Chicago Daily News in an editorial August 24, 1916: "If courage, honesty, ability and independence are what are needed in a Governor of Illinois, then Morton D. Hull fills the bill to a remarkable degree."

Says the Chicago Tribune in an editorial January, 1913: "If Mr. Hull were the choice of the republicans for leader, there at least would be a guarantee of efficient, honest leadership on one side of the hall."

Protecting Womanhood from Industrial Slavery

Senator Hull saving the Labor Bill for Shorter Hours for Women from defeat, when opponents were desperately attempting to kill this protective measure during the last two days of legislative session of 1909. His opponents then are his opponents now. Vote for Hull and help vote them down.

Hughes Helped Protect Insurance Policy Holders in New York - Hull Helped in Illinois.

As an outgrowth of the Hughes Insurance Investigation in New York, Senator Hull in 1907 conducted the passage of Insurance legislation regulating the terms of Insurance Policies for the protection of policy holders. The constructive republicanism that won in national affairs when Hughes was nominated will win in Illinois when Hull is nominated.

Senator Hull Stopped Leaks And Thus Saved the Taxpayers $716,676.50

Senator Hull secured the passage of the Anti-Graft Law requiring the State Treasurer to give to the State the interest on Public Funds. This act has already brought the State $676,676.50. Efficiency in State Printing, which he helped secure, has saved the taxpayers $40,000 during the first year.

The Legislative Voters' League Said of Hull—

In its report September 15, 1910: "A recognized leader of the progressive element of the House."

And again in January, 1912: "One of the prime movers of the republican progressive organization. No gangster or reactionary has ever questioned his sincerity."

And in October, 1914: "He is second to none as authority on legislative matters and should be elected."

Senator Hull Winning in the Fight for Direct Primaries in Illinois

Senator Hull was the Chairman and leader of that valiant group who became famous as "The Band of Hope." Their untiring fight put through the Direct Primary Law in Illinois in 1908, and gave the people the power to select their own candidates. Reactionary interests opposed to Hull then are opposing him now.

Civil Service for 4200 State Employees—Another Hull Drive for Good Government

Senator Hull secured the passage of the State Civil Service Bill in 1911, placing 4200 state employees under the present Merit law, and prohibiting the collection of the "five per cent Slush Fund" from them by spoils politicians. The Thompson-Lundin interests that have desecrated Chicago's civil service system now seek to gain control of the state jobs also by defeating Senator Hull.

Fought for Workmen's Compensation Act

Senator Hull helped put through the Workmen's Compensation Act, which specifies the amount due employees injured in the service of employers. This avoids the necessity of damage suits and aims to enable the workmen to secure prompt settlement of just claims.

EDWARD J. BRUNDAGE

Mr. Brundage was a member of the Illinois legislature for two terms, and he took an active, honorable and prominent part in the framing of beneficial state legislation. In 1904 he was elected president of the Cook County Board of Commissioners, and in 1906 he was re-elected to this office. He gave Cook County an honest and thorough business administration, which had as its crowning achievement the building of the splendid new court house. As Corporation Counsel of the city of Chicago, 1907-1911, he brought its law department to the highest standard of efficiency and he is generally considered as the best corporation counsel Chicago has ever had.

What the Chicago Press Have Said of Edward J. Brundage.

"Mr. Brundage, as president of the county board, has made an enviable record. His work has been praised most highly by those who know in detail the character of his public service. . . . A conspicuous evidence of Mr. Brundage's ability is the new court house."—The Chicago Daily News.

"Edward J. Brundage has made a remarkable record as president of the county board. He will make an equally good one as chief of the city's law department."—Chicago Daily Tribune.

"Mr. Brundage is regarded as the best corporation counsel Chicago ever had. His ability as an executive became recognized when the big municipal politics, now being worked out, were formulated during his tenure of this office."—Chicago Evening Post.

AFTER THE WAR CONDITIONS MUST OCCUPY ATTENTION

A Steady Hand Needed to Guide Country When Changes in Conditions Come—Europe Sure to Become Buyer of Necessities Only.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—What conditions will confront the business world when the European war is ended? Especially, what conditions will confront the American farmer, manufacturer and business man?

These are the questions to which many leaders of American business thought are applying themselves at the present time. They are questions that deserve the sober thought of every American citizen, be his business interests big or little. To no one should they appeal for more than consideration than to the salaried man, the wage worker and the producer, whose incomes depend almost completely on the prosperity of the United States.

This far all can see: With the end of the European war the rush of war orders will cease; if any orders are pending completion they will be canceled. In other words the American factories which have been rushed at top speed to care for the needs of the warring nations will stop their activities suddenly and completely, and the huge profits will stop with them.

Will Buy Just Necessities.

Europe, instead of ordering from America on a stupendous scale and at any price, will order only the bare necessities at the lowest prices obtainable, until such time as its nations have had an opportunity to recuperate from the financial drain imposed by the war. Its millions of trained and efficient soldiers will return to peaceful business pursuits with the determination to wrest back from America the excess of gold which has piled up here while blood was flowing on the fields of Europe.

Will the United States stumble blindly along to the end of the war and then pause to wonder what to do with the factories that have no more war orders to fill and with the thousands of workmen who have no more work to do on war contracts? Will it revert suddenly back to the dark business conditions that prevailed in the early summer of 1914, before the war began in Europe?

If it does, the nation will come to a sudden realization of opportunities lost while the time was yet available for the making of them. Even the most unthinking will be able to perceive evanescent qualities of a prosperity based on war only.

A Steady Hand Needed.

The keenest business thought of the country, working on the ways and means of meeting the post-bellum problems that will confront America, is agreed that the great need of the United States will be a steady hand, a constructive brain and a firmly determined policy in the conduct of governmental affairs, when these problems are up for solution.

More than ever before in the history of the country, the protection of American industry by the government will be needed to bring about a complete industrial and commercial preparedness that will tide the Americans over the business crisis existing while world affairs are being readjusted.

Interwoven with every thought on what conditions will be after the war, is the question of tariff protection to American producers and to American workmen. The moment factories close all producers begin to lose. Peaceful Europe will have its eyes fastened on the rich American market. Peaceful Europe is well aware of the barriers imposed against a swamping of the American market by European-made goods when a Republican tariff is affording protection to the American farmer, manufacturer and workman.

The Europe that will be at peace again before another national administration is completed in America, will hope to find the protective tariff wall torn down as it is at present under Democratic rule. It will hope to find that America has been lulled into a feeling of false security during the rush of war business and has remained industrially unprepared.

The thinking American will hope that the protective tariff wall is restored to its complete strength by a Republican Congress and a Republican president before the country comes face to face with the problems following the war's conclusion.

Every American, whether he thinks into the future or only for the moment, will want a firm and determined course pursued by the national administration, not a course marked by wobbling and indecision that will result only in business depression and fear. The wage worker and the salaried man will want a steady course of business progress that will enable them to live without the fear of idleness and hunger.

No one will want a return to the conditions of the spring and early summer of 1914 when the Democratic fiscal policy had brought on a treasury deficiency that resulted in the imposition by the Democratic administration of obnoxious stamp taxes in an effort to recoup the losses in revenue sustained by tariff bungling; and when it took a war in Europe and its resultant supply orders here to drive away the imminent prospect of soup kitchens and lengthy bread lines in the industrial centers of the country.

The Time to Think.

This is the time for Americans to think out the solution of these problems. This is the time when it is possible to provide a Republican Congress that will restore protection to American industry and workmen. This is the time when it is possible to remove from administration the control the wobbling, indecisive, shifting policy now in charge and substitute a firm, steady business-like administration thru the election of Charles Evans Hughes.

Labor must thank not the democratic administration, but a republican United States Senator for that clause in the Clayton anti-trust law which reads:

"The labor of human beings is not a commodity or article of commerce."

President Wilson, in his speech of acceptance, alluded to this provision of the law as one indication of democracy's interest in the laboring man. As a matter of fact, as the Clayton bill passed the House of Representatives it carried no such phrase. The language in question was offered in the Senate as an amendment by Senator Cummins of Iowa, a republican, and was then and there accepted as a part of the bill.

Yet, in face of the facts, the President, at Shadow Lawn, spoke of the "great army of men who man the industries," carrying "their labor as a mere commodity to market," and of the removal of this condition by specific democratic legislation. The legislation for which the President claims credit on behalf of the democratic party was conceived by a republican mind and written into the Clayton bill on motion of a republican senator.

GIFFORD PINCHOT TELLS WHY HE IS FOR CANDIDATE HUGHES

Prominent Progressive Assails Wilson Administration For Failure to Back Words With Deeds—Gives Evidence to Support Statement.

It is the duty of every American citizen to make and support openly his choice among the candidates for the Presidency. That duty is especially solemn this year because great events and great decisions are certain to confront us during the next administration. I am writing to give you my reasons for my own choice. If you care to lay them before your readers, please do so, but not before Monday morning, September 11.

I am neither a Democrat nor a Republican, but a Progressive. Yet, there being no Progressive nominee, unless I choose to support a candidate who can not be elected, I must vote for either Wilson or Hughes.

For many months after his inauguration, I thought well of President Wilson. In many respects I liked what he said about what he was going to do. He talked well and made a good impression. It was only when I began to check up what he said by what he did that I was forced to change my view.

In the end I came to see that President Wilson has a greater power to say one thing but do another, and get away with it.

The facts which justify this statement are common knowledge.

We have all heard him tell Germany publicly that she would be held to strict accountability; and have learned afterward that he had actually let her know secretly at the time, by the mouth of his Secretary of State through the Austrian Ambassador, that what he said he did not mean. We have all seen him prove that he did not mean it by his total failure to exact reparation, apology, or even disavowal for the murder of Americans on the Lusitania.

I do not say that Wilson should have thrust us into war. There was no need for war. But there was need of courage to give us peace with self-respect. If Wilson has shown courage this country would not have skidded from one crisis to the next, again and again, narrowly escaping disaster.

We have all heard him declare against intervention in Mexico, while actually intervening to dictate who should and should not hold office there; and denounce war against Mexico while actually engaged in war.

With war on every side of us, we all heard him, in his second annual message, assure the country we had not been negligent of National defense. It was not true; and later on he himself proved that it was not true by proclaiming aloud the need for what he had solemnly assured us we already had.

For more than a year after the world-war began, Wilson did not raise a finger to put us in a condition of defense. Only the proverbial good luck of America has kept us from paying the bitterest price for his unforgivable neglect.

We have all heard him ridicule the idea of a greater navy, then declare for incomparably the greatest navy in the world, and then go back on that.

We have all heard him declare for exempting our coast-wise trade from toll on the Panama Canal; and have seen him show our own people and the English that he did not mean it.

We have seen him elected on a platform which pledged him to a single term as president, and then become a candidate for another term.

We have all heard him declare for the Conservation of our natural resources; and have seen his neglect that policy, and refuse his help to defeat the Shields water-power bill, the most dangerous attack on Conservation since Ballinger's effort to turn Alaska over to the Guggenheims.

We have all heard him declare for efficiency in Government, and have seen him set the pork-barrel first and throw efficiency away. I have known official Washington from the inside for six administrations. In that time the Government business has never been so badly done and so extravagantly as it is now done under Wilson.

We have all heard him announce himself as the champion of Civil Service reform; and have seen him turn the Government Departments over to the spoilsman as no other President has done in twenty years.

We have all heard him declare for pitiless publicity; and have seen him conduct the most secret administration of our time.

We have all heard him announce himself as President of all the people, and have seen him, as the most partisan president of his generation, flout and oppose the Progressives, whom new, because he needs them, he seeks to conciliate and enlist.

Worst of all is this: When every principle of freedom for which our fathers fought was at stake in the great war, when our whole country eagerly awaited the leadership of the President, Wilson dodged. He refused to take sides on the greatest moral issue of our time. He advised the people to be "neutral even in thought" undecided between right and wrong. While our friends abroad were fighting for the principles we held equally with them, he taught us that profits and ease were better than self-respect. President Wilson has done our Nation the most serious injury that any leader can do to any people by making us finish with him from a great moral decision. Thereby he weakened our hold as a nation on the principles which alone can make any people self-respecting, safe and strong.

Having led us wrong on the ground that we must be neutral in the face of deliberate breaking of the world's peace, he has just reversed himself again, and in his speech at Shadow Lawn now assures us that "No nation can any longer remain neutral as against any wilful disturbance of the peace of the world."

It is bad enough that Wilson's foreign policy has left us as the War draws toward its end, without a friends among great nations of the world, and without the respect of any one of them. What is worse is that he has kept us from standing up for what we know to be right.

The ignoble standard of profit over principle which Mr. Wilson forced upon the country in our foreign relations, he has applied to himself as President. In what he has said, done, and left undone, the record shows him steadily dominated by political expediency.

These facts, and many others like them, have forced me to see that what Mr. Wilson says is no sign of what he has done, or of what he will do. The one thing his record shows is that what he stands for now he is not likely to stand for long. I do not care what his platform or his campaign declarations may be, because the common experience of us all has taught us that to him they are simply "molasses to catch flies."

Hughes, on the other hand, is a man of his word. His record as Governor of New York proves that. It shows him to be honest fearless and free from the domination of special interests and corrupt politicians. So far as the Conservation policies are concerned, both what he said and what he did could hardly have been better. I am confident that under him these policies will be safe. He is a strong man who will dodge no moral issues, and he will give us an honest and efficient administration.

As a Progressive I believe in Nationalism. So does Hughes. I am certain that under Hughes the progressive policies will fare better than under Wilson, and that the safety, honor, and welfare of the country will be immeasurably surer hands.

I can not vote for Wilson because I can not trust him. He does not do for Hughes is my choice and I shall work and vote for him.

Very truly yours,
Gifford Pinchot.

WHY EDWARD N. KITNER SHOULD BE NOMINATED FOR CORONER

Edward N. Kitner is a candidate for nomination for coroner on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Kitner has not been in a position to make a complete canvass of the county and meet every voter. He however, has quite a wide acquaintance and has visited most of the pines and other public gatherings in an effort to get his candidacy before the public.

Mr. Kitner's canvass has been made entirely free from personalities. He is not the candidate of any individual or any faction.

If elected coroner Mr. Kitner will be coroner. He will do the work of the office and therefore will be entitled to receive the fees of the office.

He will serve as coroner himself and in case of too much work at one time presenting itself he will for the immediate occasion choose a temporary deputy.

Mr. Kitner is making his canvass on his qualifications and his ability and has not asked for sympathy and made use of other supposedly assisting methods to boost his chances.

He wants to be coroner and will not farm out the job.

Mr. Kitner is well and popularly known in the county and his reputation as a business man stands him well in hand.

Voters who desire that Morgan County should have a coroner who will be able and willing to be coroner after being elected to the office will do well to consider Mr. Kitner at the primary Election next Wednesday.

This is an important office and its affairs should be conducted in the interest of all the people of the county, without fear or favor, with equal rights to all and special privilege to none.

That is Kitner's platform: "A Square Deal to All."

A Voter.

Keeping up with the procession is not enough for the General—he must lead. And lead he does—in volume, quality and price. The General's leadership is due to the enormous resources at his command—the five m's of modern manufacturing—men, money, mills, machinery and materials.

Men who have learned the roofing business through years of practical experience are in charge of every department of the business. Men who have made a life study of the blending of asphaltis comprise the General's Board of Expert Chemists.

Money—the means to promote efficiency, increase out-put, reduce cost, prevent waste—is at the General's call in abundance.

Mills—the largest roofing mills in the world are the General's. They are advantageously located at points where cost of fuel, access to raw materials and quick distribution of finished products are most favorable.

Machinery—the most modern known to the roofing business, equips each of the General's enormous mills. Not a dollar is left unspent which would speed up production, increase quality or lower costs.

Materials—the food of the mills—is bought by the General in enormous quantities, and stored. This means the pick of the market and favorable buying, and no loss from idle machinery, due to shortage of materials.

Thus the success of CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is no secret, but is due to a combination of resources and experience without parallel in the roofing business.

CERTAIN-TEED is made of the best quality roofing felt, thoroughly saturated with a scientific blend of soft asphaltis, the formula of the General's board of expert chemists. It is then coated with a blend of harder asphaltis, which keeps the inner saturation soft and prevents the drying-out so destructive to the ordinary roof.

CERTAIN-TEED is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). Experience proves that it lasts longer.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roof, from skyscraper to small residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world, at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.

FALLING OFF IN U. S. VISIBLE, SUPPLY STRENGTHENS WHEAT

Word of Big Export Sales Also Help to Boost Prices—Prices Close % to 1% Cents Net Higher—Other Leading Staples Show Declines.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—Announcement of a falling off in the United States visible supply had a good deal to do today with strengthening the wheat market and so too did word of big export sales of United States wheat. Prices closed unsettled but % to 1% net higher, with December $1.54 and May $1.55. Other leading staples all showed declines—corn one cent to 1%o, oats % to %o to %o and provisions 7c to 6c.

At first the wheat market failed to hold up turns in prices the reason was that early advances were chiefly the result of a temporary absence of selling pressure. Caution on the part of the bears was decidedly evident for a time influenced to some extent by the surrender of the Roumanian fortress of Silistria to the Bulgarians. However rains in Kansas much needed for fall plowing led soon to a downturn in values.

It was not until just before the end of the session that despatches arrived telling of heavy export buying on the decline, the British commission alone taking 1,000,000 bushels.

Corn gave way mainly to assertions of wonderful crop improvement of late corn in Illinois and a continued favorable weather for maturing the crop. Speculative holders unloaded freely.

Oats sagged with corn. Later reports of a good export demand the caused something of a rally.

Lower prices on hogs weakened provisions. After an unusually sharp buying on the part of the shorts and packers gave the market an appearance of relative strength but quotations in no case were again up to the level of Saturday's finish.

STOCKS SCORE SUBSTANTIAL GAINS AND A FEW NEW HIGH RECORDS

Trading is so Large and Diversified as to Leave Little Doubt of Public Participation.

New York, Sept. 11.—In further disregard of conditions which ordinarily make for speculative restraint, such as the poor crop outlook, another large contraction in local bank reserves and the spread of labor troubles, the week in the stock market opened with a continuation of bullish activity which resulted in numerous substantial gains and a few new high records.

Trading was so large and diversified again as to leave little doubt of public participation. The total of 1,210,000 shares was made up chiefly of United States Steel and affiliated industrials, metals and the shipping issues, with a liberal sprinkling of munitions and equipments.

United States Steel repeated its familiar performance of scoring a new maximum on its gross gain of 1% points to 104%. Mercantile marine preferred also sold higher than before. General Motors rose 16 to 590. Independent Steel stocks like Republic, Sloss-Sheffield, Lackawanna, Colorado Fuel, Railway Steel Springs and American Car were higher by two to five points.

Why Edward N. Kitner Should Be Nominated for Coroner

Edward N. Kitner is a candidate for coroner on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Kitner has not been in a position to make a complete canvass of the county and meet every voter. He has, however, quite a wide acquaintance and has visited most of the picnics and other public gatherings in an effort to get his candidacy before the public.

Mr. Kitner's canvass has been made entirely free from personalities. He is not the candidate of any individual or any faction.

If elected coroner, Mr. Kitner will be coroner. He will do the work of the office and therefore will be entitled to receive the fees of the office.

He will serve as coroner himself and in case of too much work at one time presenting itself he will for the immediate occasion choose a temporary deputy.

Mr. Kitner is making his canvass on his qualifications and his ability and has not asked for sympathy or made use of other supposedly assisting methods to boost his chances.

He wants to be coroner and will not farm out the job. Mr. Kitner is well and popularly known in the county and his reputation as a business man stands him well in hand.

Voters who desire that Morgan county should have a coroner who will be able and willing to be coroner after being elected to the office will do well to consider Mr. Kitner at the primary election next Wednesday.

This is an important office and its affairs should be conducted in the interest of all the people of the county, without fear or favor, with equal rights to all and special privilege to none.

That is Kitner's platform—"A Square Deal to All."

1916 Crops Increase Western Farm Values

Wide-awake farmers are fast settling up the 320 acres Free Mondell Lands, but here is an excellent selection yet for you near Douglas on the Burlington's new Central Wyoming Irrigated Lands. Watch for autumn announcement opening 12,000 acres Deaver Unit, Big Horn Basin, next to wonderful Government irrigated locality at Powell. Write me about it. Bumper wheat crops and favorable live stock conditions are creating widespread demand for these good lands. If you or your sons desire good lands along the Burlington, including the Big Horn Basin Government irrigated lands that are almost a gift, I urge you to get in touch with me at once, before the landseekers' activity that is absolutely certain to respond to the 1916 crops on cheap Western lands, gets under way.

CLASS OF 1903 REUNION

As a good number of the class of 1903, Illinois college, were in the city Sunday it was decided to have a reunion of all available and a good number assembled and enjoyed dinner together and a delightful social time. College days were discussed, reminiscences indulged in and a fine time generally was enjoyed and it was with genuine regret that good-byes were said to the ones from a distance.

During the afternoon they called on Pres. Rammelkamp and paid him their respects and were most cordially received. Those at the dinner were L. E. Stone, Springfield; J. A. Vasconcellos, Geo. E. Doying, Dr. A. R. Gregory, R. I. Dunlap, W. G. Goebel, Jacksonville; and Prof. Wm. A. Lippincott of Manhattan, Kansas.

HUGH GREEN HOME

Jacksonville, Ill.,

Sept. 11, 1916.

To Mr. Intelligent Republican Voter, Morgan County, Ill.

My Dear Fellow Citizen:

I wish, if it may please you, to say a word to you concerning my candidacy for the Republican nomination for member of the House of Representatives in the General Assembly of Illinois, in the 45th Senatorial District.

A few days ago I completed a strenuous campaign in Sangamon, having been in that county over a dozen different times and having gone into various precincts day and night in Springfield as well as in the county outside of Springfield. I have also been in the various precincts in Morgan, some of them a number of times. Jacksonville is the place where I began the campaign; Jacksonville is the place to which I have returned each time after a journey; and Jacksonville is the place where I finish.

The voters of Sangamon say that they supported me generously two years ago and that they will do it again; even better; that Morgan county is entitled to representative; that my following in Sangamon everywhere is a strong one and that if the people of Morgan really want a representative they have an easy opportunity to get a home man in the Legislature by rolling up a heavy vote for me in Morgan County. Any

MURRAYVILLE TAKES SERIES FROM ROODHOUSE SUNDAY

Game Staged on Roodhouse Diamond Score 7 to 5—Jacksonville Men Play Good Ball for Murrayville.

Murrayville won the fourth and deciding game of the five game series with Roodhouse at Roodhouse Sunday by a score of 7 to 5. Murrayville already had two games to her credit and copped the deciding game Sunday. LeFrates, Christopher and McCollister played with Murrayville and all played good ball.

Roodhouse had Smithson, just returned from a season in the Texas League, on the mound while John Wright pitched for Murrayville. Smithson only allowed six hits but two passed balls in the ninth on third strikes after two were out put two men on the paths. Murrayville then began to hunt the ball and put three runs across winning out.

number of Morgan County voters have assured me that they have been working among their friends industriously to impress upon them the good chance that there is in getting a home man in the Legislature and that the way to do it is to vote for me and for nobody else; that gives me three votes and it counts up fast; and that with the Sangamon votes so divided, the voter at home can concentrate on a home man and win. They have said that Morgan should have a man from right here so that they could talk to him and deal with him at first hand instead of at arms length and that they will see to it that my interests are handled all day long at the polls on Primary Day. My case is the same here and in Sangamon. Here is my case:

Our plan of government is such that law is a very important element. The president enforces law. The federal constitution and the acts of congress are law. In the state the governor enforces law. The legislature makes law. The supreme court explains and interprets law. The state constitution and the acts of the general assembly are law. And I am a lawyer. I do not say that I am a great and able lawyer. I do say that any one who has observed me knows that I have been a hard working lawyer. I have had a hard working legal experience in the courts from the supreme court down to the justice court. I have been in the circuit and county courts repeatedly, and I am in the appellate court now.

Since admission to the bar, I have been associated as a partner with Messrs. Worthington and Reeve, both of whom are recognized as lawyers of a high standard of ability. Moreover, I have had considerable experience in parliamentary practices and procedure. On that theory I present myself as a candidate for a law making office. I do not say that I would be a useful member of the house. I do not say that, in view of that experience, I ought to be a useful member. I state to you the facts. You form the opinion.

Against Messrs. Frisch, Lyon, Pavey, Dunn and Hildreth I have absolutely nothing harmful to say. Unavoidably I have refrained from saying anything that might be offensive to them or to their friends. Their cases I leave to them and to you.

In my platform I have stated positively my stand on certain issues. On the liquor question I favor county option. On the suffrage question I favor equal suffrage for women. Other measures which I favor are: Constitutional convention, revision of revenue laws, protection of industrial workers, good roads, civil service, economy.

The Anti-Saloon league, I understand, indorses Messrs. Lyon and Pavey, to the exclusion of the other candidates. The head of the organization, and thru it, the organization, seems to be for those men. I al-

The Legislative Voters' League Says of W. A. Pavey

September Bulletin

"Mr. Pavey is a farmer and a retired business man, who is known as a public spirited citizen and has plenty of ability for the position he is seeking."

FACTS

Upon Which This Report is Based

W. A. Pavey came to Sangamon county twenty-six years ago and embarked in the brokerage business, dealing with wholesale grocers exclusively. Wholesale grocers are limited in number and a man's business methods must be above reproach to deal with these few men year after year, gaining with each year.

As president of the Springfield Business Men's Association he did the preliminary work that that brought the Shoe Factory and Smelter Works to Springfield. While president of this association he succeeded in keeping all 'blue sky' stock selling enterprises from bilking the public. No enterprise received his endorsement without the most thorough investigation. In all the time he was president no citizen ever lost a dollar in stocks—through the thoroughness of his work.

The Legislative Voters' League gave this report, for they investigated and found him true to his trust, to his business associates and to the public. That's why you should vote for W. A. Pavey.

most become discouraged when I think of the tremendous influence of the little recommendatory card, and what it represents. By innuendo, some intelligent people may be given the impression that I am not straight of this question it may occur to them that, inasmuch as the league does not indorse me, there must be something crooked about me on the liquor question. Assuredly that conclusion by no means need follow. I am as dry as Mr. Pavey or Mr. Lyon; absolutely. And any number of Anti-Saloon league people have earnestly assured me that they will stand by me as friend to friend, feeling that they do not necessarily frustrate the purposes of the organization by voting for a man who seems absolutely straight on that question. If I were not "dry" in principle, 10,000 Anti-Saloon leagues could never make me "dry"; being dry, I cannot, whatever method the league sees fit to adopt, be made "wet."

If it were not for the impelling force of Republican spirit, I don't know how I could have gone ahead with this fight in the face of the obstacles that have confronted me. If ever a man fought on and on against seemingly great odds I feel just like that man. First there was the lack of encouragement on the part of those who are called regular politicians. Second, there was the repeated discouragement of Democratic brethren in Morgan that it was useless to ask the voters of Sangamon to vote for me. Third, there was thrown in my face the terror of a combination to elect a couple of the other candidates. Fourth, there was the suggestion that there is another candidate from Morgan. And fifth, there is the indorsement by the Anti-Saloon league of Messrs. Lyon and Pavey.

It makes me feel a good deal as I used to feel when running the mile run for Illinois college. If it had not been for the impelling force of college spirit, I don't know how I should have been able to clip off mile after mile, under the five minute mark, going on and on, with the crowd at first jeering only to change it to cheering as the last lap told the tale that the winner was Hugh Green. Old athletes knew that I could be depended on to pull down first place with five points for the team. If you have a fellow feeling for that kind of a man, will you kindly mention my name to your friends, altho, for some good reason you may intend to vote for someone else.

You have three votes. You can vote for three candidates; two or one. If it appeals to you that you would like to send me to the state house as your representative, you will vote for me. How many votes you wish to give me will depend on how strong your desire may be to have me represent you. If you see fit to vote for me and me alone, that gives me three votes, and they count up fast. I shall keenly appreciate whatever good you see fit to do me.

In conclusion I have only to say that if, when you step into the booth and take your pencil and ballot in hand you make your cross opposite the name of Hugh Green, the last name on the ballot for representative; if you nominate and later elect me, I shall remember that I said, that, if nominated and elected, I would strive to make Sangamon and Morgan counties a worthy representative.

I am, my fellow citizens, sincerely yours, for a mutual remembrance.

HUGH GREEN,

LOWDEN NOMINATION IS NOW CERTAIN STEAD SAYS

Chairman of Ogle County Man's Campaign Committee Sees Certain Success in Primary Wednesday.

Chicago, Sept. 11.—"The nomination of Frank O. Lowden for governor of Illinois at the primary Wednesday is beyond question. Our reports from precinct committeemen and other reliable Republicans from every county in the state show that he will carry at least eighty five down-state counties. His plurality down-state will be large and Chicago will increase it. The vote by which he will be nominated will be an overwhelming endorsement of the clean campaign. Colonel Lowden has conducted and will be notice to political leaders for all time to come that unfounded malicious attacks upon candidates and such campaign methods have no place in a contest for the nomination for the high office of governor.

"W. H. Stead, chairman Lowden Campaign Committee."

BURLINGTON WAY MEETING HELD AT CARTHAGE MONDAY

Trail Between Beardstown and Burlington, Ia., May not be Changed—Meeting in Waverly Today.

The re-routing of the Burlington trail between Beardstown and Burlington, Ia., was the subject of a special meeting held Monday at Carthage. There were a hundred and twenty five present including delegates from towns along the old trail and from towns along the proposed trail. The old trail route asked for a thirty day probation to prove that they wanted the route and this was given them to remark the trail and to rebuild the road. The executive committee then decided to establish the proposed scenic route from Beardstown to Burlington. Contracts were placed in the hands of Secretary Nissen to properly mark the new trail thru Rushville, Carthage, Hamilton, Nauvoo and East Ft. Madison. These towns must in order to obtain this trail, sign contracts to keep the trail in good order and to keep the trail well marked.

Today the executive committee will meet in Waverly where M. G. Spaulding, director of the International Paved Way association, will speak. The biggest project the Burlington Way has undertaken will then be discussed, that of having a paved way from Detroit, Mich., to Larado, Texas. In Springfield Tuesday evening a similar meeting will be held.

ROUTINE BUSINESS BEFORE CITY COUNCIL AT MONDAY'S SESSION

Three Sidewalk Ordinances Passed Need for Pump at South Sid Station.

The city council session Monday morning was not of a very interesting kind because it consisted mainly in the reading of ordinances. This work is necessary in order to provide for improvements but does not give a great deal of interest to council proceedings. Mr. Cox reported that the campaign against weeds had been progressing quite well but that it seemed impossible to get action from non-residents who have property here overgrown with weeds. He referred particularly to a lot at the corner of Mount Avenue and Woodlawn Place which is owned by Mr. Spaulding of Springfield. On this and some other property it will be necessary probably for the city to go ahead and cut the weeds even if the remuneration is not had afterward. Mr. Vasconcellos reported the Smith-Baile pump at the south side station in bad condition with the possibility of the need for new cylinders. This work, if done, will be quite expensive and the council will seek some way to obviate this expense. The fact is that new cylinders with additional work on the pump would cost one-third or half as much as a dynamo and electric pump.

The wish of the council has been to electrify the south side station just as soon as possible, using power from the municipal light plant for pumping. This plan would result in the saving of at least $200 a month as it would not be then necessary to have fires or keep men constantly at the south side plant. The ordinance for sidewalks on Pine street, South East and North Diamond streets were given a second reading and adopted. The ordinance for the sidewalks on the north side of Mathers street was given a second reading.

WILLIAM H. WEEDEN DIES AT HOME NEAR MERRITT

Respected Scott County Citizen Passes Away Monday After Long Illness—Funeral Wednesday.

William Weeden, one of Scott county's most prominent farmers and a highly respected citizen passed away at his home two miles west of Merritt early Monday morning after an illness of two years of arteriosclerosis, aged 65 years, 6 months and 13 days. His last illness came upon him about one week ago from which time he failed rapidly until death relieved him of his suffering. Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weeden, English emigrants who settled in Naples where William was born and resided there until he was five years old when he removed with his parents to near Merritt and then grew to manhood's estate. In 1875 he was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Morris, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Morris of Exeter. To this union two children were born, Mrs. Lora Rockwood, who with her husband resides at home and one son who died in infancy. One grandson has also preceded him in death. Besides his widow, he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Fannie Morris of Bluffs. Funeral services will be held at his home Wednesday at 2 p. m., the Rev. V. P. Mitchell of Weedman, Ill., officiating. Interment will be made at the Gillham cemetery near Winchester.

PUT ON DIMMERS

Great complaint is made of automobile drivers whose cars are supplied with electric lights which so dazzle all whom they approach that they cause great risk. A gentleman out in a car lighted by acetylene gas came very near being run down by an electrically lighted car whose blaze was so dazzling that it blinded the man approaching. Some cities require dimmers on such cars within the city limits and the same has been suggested for Jacksonville. The objection is the excessive shade on some streets.
